

ANNUAL REPORTS

The Honorary Auditor's Financial Report December 31, 1981 and 1980

We have examined the statements of assets and liabilities of the Siam Society (Under Royal Patronage) as at December 31, 1981 and 1980 and the related statements of revenues and expenses for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accounts of the Society are maintained and the accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the cash basis, with adjustments to give effect to unsold publications, dues collected in advance and inclusion of provision for depreciation.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, on the basis indicated in the preceding paragraph, the assets and liabilities of the Siam Society (Under Royal Patronage) at December 31, 1981 and 1980 and its revenues and expenses for the years then ended, applied on a consistent basis.

THE SIAM SOCIETY
NOTE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1981 AND 1980

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The Society has adopted the practice of recording donated properties at nominal values. Because of the nature of the Society's activities, it has not put emphasis on establishing the current values of these properties. In the past, the Society had obtained a valuation for its land which was quoted at Baht 7.2 million.

Furniture, fixtures and office equipment are being depreciated by the declining balance method; whereby the depreciation rate of 10%-20% are being applied on the net book value at the beginning of each year, while the transportation equipment is depreciated by the straight-line method of five years. Depreciation expense amounted to Baht 138,422.86 in 1981 and Baht 101,224 in 1980.

2. Presentation of the Annual Report for the Council year 1980. Since there were no questions or comments the Annual Report was adopted as presented.
3. Presentation of the Financial Statement for 1980. M.R. Patanachai Jayant, the Honorary Treasurer, presented the Financial Statement for 1980 with the comment that although the statements of Assets and Liabilities showed an increase of more than one million baht from 1979 to 1980, this was misleading in that it reflected the contributions received from the Society's Seventy-Fifth Anniversary Fund Raising, but not the amounts spent on air-conditioning the hall and repairing the Library. In actuality the Society spent more than it received in contributions. With this commentary, the Financial Statement was accepted as presented.

a. Mr. Francis W.C. Martin read the Council's recommended changes to Rules 7, 8, 9, 13, and 32 as follows :

Rule 7 : Members of the Society shall be of four categories—Ordinary, Honorary, Corresponding and Student. Both ladies and gentlemen shall be eligible for membership of the Society.

Rule 8 : Candidates for ordinary and student membership shall be proposed by a member of the Society, and shall be put up for election at a Meeting of the Council.

Rule 9 : The Annual Subscription for Ordinary members shall be Baht 500, and for Student members Baht 50.00 payable IN ADVANCE on the 1st of January in each year, or in the case of new members upon notification of election. The election shall, however, not be deemed valid until the first year's subscription have been paid.

Ordinary Members shall be allowed to apply for life membership of the Society on a single payment of Baht 10,000.—

Ordinary Members of a standing of full twenty-five years shall be deemed to be life members, and ipso facto be exempted from further subscription.

The Council shall have power to remit or reduce the Annual Subscription for Ordinary Members in special cases.

Rule 13 : Any Ordinary Member, and student member, resigning after the 1st of January of any year, shall be liable for his subscription for that year.

Rule 32 : Every Member of the Society shall be entitled to one copy of each number of the Journal and the Bulletin as it appears upon payment of such sum as the Council may fix to cover cost of production from time to time.

There was a discussion, during which Dr. Tej Bunnag pointed out that with the continuously rising costs of publications the Siam Society could no longer afford to include the Journals in the fixed membership fee. It was, he explained, the Council's plan to publish only one Journal in 1981, which would be a thicker, more substantial volume than any single volume recently published, with the hope that in 1982 the Society would be able to return to the two-volumes per year. The amendments to the Rules of the Siam Society were then adopted as recommended by the out-going Council.

Mr. Roger Krasker suggested that the Society have more natural history trips organized by Mrs. Katherine Buri to Khao Yai and possibly other national parks. No action was recommended.

After the formal business of the Annual General Meeting a film on the activities of the Siam Society, The 75th Year of the Siam Society, was presented, narrated by Mrs. Nisa Sheanakul and Mr. Henri Pagau-Clarac.

The President adjourned the Meeting at 10.45 p.m.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE 1981/82

The Siam Society continued to expand its activities during the year. In addition to the Society's own programmes of regular lectures, film shows and other events, the Hall and grounds were widely used by members and the public. The Administrative Secretary and other staff have been most willing to ensure that the Society's activities were carried out smoothly.

The Society is operating under increasing financial pressure. Various economy measures have been introduced together with attempts to increase the Society's income. Rising electricity and water charges are the two major items that affect administrative costs of the Society. It is not yet clear how much the new scale of membership fees will contribute to income.

The Society is always faced with problems of storage space. Some of its unsold publications and books temporarily stored in various places could be donated to libraries, sold or even thrown away.

Membership.

The total number of members of the Siam Society, as appearing on the list at the end of December 1981, was 1160. Of this, 374 were Life Members, 768 Ordinary Members and 18 were Student Members.

The new membership structure and fees became effective as of 1 January 1982.

Staff.

1. Miss Songsri Boon-long was employed on a 3 month trial basis as Assistant Administrative Secretary on 1 June 1981. She resigned at the end of the trial period on 31 August 1981.

2. Mrs. Sunee Grima, Librarian, resigned in October 1981 after a year with the Society to go back to the United States. She was replaced by Mrs. Yuwadee Pitak.

3. Mr. Suraphol Kayan, office boy, was given leave for 18 days to be ordained as a monk.

The Society has 13 staff members.

House and Ground Improvement.

1. A typewriter was purchased for the Business office.

2. Ten tables were purchased for the Hall.

3. The Administrative Committee was anxious to find a way to improve the acoustics in the Hall. Financial constraint was the principal limiting factor.

Donations.

Mrs. Katherine Buri, Honorary Treasurer, kindly donated a pump to the Society to help to drain flood water from the compound. Mrs. Buri also kindly donated a lens for use with a 16 mm. movie projector.

The Fuji Photo Co. Ltd. kindly donated one Fujica single lens reflex camera and one Fujica Auto Strobe AZ which prove excellent for Programme and Travel work of the Society. Mrs. Sonia Krug, Council member also kindly donated a calculating machine to the office.

Hall and Grounds.

The Hall has been used for the Society's varied programmes, performances, film and video shows, etc. The Society now serves punch, snacks and coffee during the interval—a service which seems to have been warmly received by those who join in the Society's activities.

The Siam Studio Co. Ltd. rented the hall to make advertising films in June 1981. The Hall and grounds were also rented for cocktail, dinner and wedding parties.

With increased electricity and water charges, the rent hardly covered expenses. The rental charges may have to be revised in view of increased costs.

Film Project.

A number of old films were given to the Siam Society some years ago by H.M. Queen Rambhai Barni. Some of these films have been examined, cleaned and restored with expert help. There is, however, still considerable work to be done.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

LIBRARY ACQUISITION.

The Library had 213 titles added to the collection. Out of these 122 titles were in Thai.

For gift and donation, there were 59 titles in Thai and 203 in foreign languages; with emphasis on arts and Buddhism. Donors were both individuals and institutions.

LIBRARY SERVICES.

1. Cataloguing and classification.

1.1 The library has attempted to catalogue books in Mon and Burmese through the help of a volunteer expert in Mon.

1.2 For better bibliographic control, the reclassification and relocation of back issues and bound volumes of journals has begun.

1.3 A list of 35 old and rare maps with details about size and location has been completed.

2. Microfilm project. The microfilming of The Journal of the Siam Society Vol. 1-57 is now complete, both for library use and for sale. Due to the condition of the paper, the result of the microfilming of Bangkok Times has been unfortunately unsatisfactory.

4. Circulation service. The library has a number of overdue books. The library hopes that members who have overdue books will kindly return them to the library.

ANNUAL REPORT OF NATURAL HISTORY SECTION 1981/82

During the fiscal year the Natural History Section has undertaken the following activities :

1. EXCURSION : Four excursions have been organised for members of the Society and their friends. An excursion to Phu Luang Wildlife Sanctuary in Loei was attractive and received great interest from participants, so three consecutive trips have been made to this particular area of unique natural beauty, i.e. 22-25 October, 17-21 December 1981 and 5-9 February 1982.

A one-day excursion to visit the shell museum, naval museum and the aquarium in Samut Prakan on 6 June 1981 led by Dr. Thosaporn Wongratana was received with satisfaction.

2. PUBLICATION : A sum of Baht 60,000 has been approved by the Council for the publication of the Natural History Bulletin, Volume 29. Owing to the scarcity of articles, the publication has had to be postponed; the volume is expected to be published during the fiscal year 1982-1983.

3. COMMITTEE MEETING : An open meeting was held on 10th February 1982 to discuss plans and activities of the Section. Plans for a supplementary bicentennial volume of the Natural History Bulletin entitled "Conservation in Thailand" were considered.

Dr. Tem Smitinand was re-elected as the Leader for 1982-1983.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE 1981/82

Owing to the tightness of the Society's financial, situation only one book was published: a new edition of Yao Design by Jacqueline Butler Diaz. This is very welcome as the book had long been out of print. Mrs. Sonia Krug kindly acted as editor and the Council is most grateful to the author for a loan to help cover the cost of production.

Future publications include "The Kamthieng House" by Mrs. Sonia Krug, "A History of Mon" "Dvaravati Art" by Dr. Piriya Krairiksh and "Thai Bank Notes" by Charles Stewart.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE KAMTHIENG HOUSE COMMITTEE 1981/82

Miss Amaraphorn Lelakultanit, B. Archeology (Silpakorn University) was selected and employed as curator of the Kamthieng House from February 1981. She spent the first two months re-arranging exhibit items in the main house and the hill-tribe museum, resulting in much better conditions for visitors. Besides serving as regular guide to the House, Miss Amaraphorn went up to Chiang Mai in March 1981 to consult with Khun Kraisri Nimmanhemindra, the donor of the house, and to collect additional artifacts for exhibition. Miss Songsri Boon-Long, Assistant Administrative Secretary, also went to Chiang Mai on a similar mission in August 1981.

During 1981, the Kamthieng House was visited by individuals and numerous groups, including H.R.H. Prince Naruhito of Japan and Members of the American Travel Writers Association. A wedding party and several other parties were arranged at the House and in its compound.

The total revenue earned from the Kamthieng House for 1981 was 9,035 baht.

In addition, a donation of 66,254 baht from the East-West Seminar Foundation of Japan was gratefully received and utilized for the curator's salary.

As the former guidebook for the Kamthieng House ran out of print, Mrs. Sonia Krug has kindly compiled a new guidebook which is going to be more up to date and more detailed. The draft of the book has been completed and the book will be published shortly.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROGRAMME AND TRAVEL COMMITTEE

Our travels have been fairly frequent and many members and friends went regularly with us. Some trips have had to be repeated. Financially, they helped a great deal to pay other expenses of the Society, which have been constantly increasing. We have also contributed some of our earnings to worthwhile causes e.g. to Wats for mural conservation as well as for spiritual welfare of those who seek enlightenment.

Apart from our usual lectures in English, we also held seminars in Thai. For smaller audiences we used the Prince Dhani room effectively. All our lectures are taped for the benefit of absent members and those who live abroad, who can borrow these tapes or have them copied at a reasonable cost.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ART AND CULTURE COMMITTEE 1981/82

The Art and Culture Committee met four times during 1981 and either allocated funds, or assisted in the acquisition of funds, to support the following projects:—

MAK REUK KHON.

The second performance was given on the Society's lawn on 29th January by a group consisting of about 60 dancers and musicians from the combined campuses of Srinakharinwirot University at Bangkhen and Prasarnmit. An audience of 180 Society members and friends witnessed and much enjoyed this demonstration of human chess which is hard to see elsewhere these days.

AKHA (EGOR) DANCE AND MUSIC.

A programme was presented at the Society by Acharn Tirayudh Yuangsri of the Dramatic Arts College, Chiang Mai, on 25th April. Additional performances were also given at the Bangkok Bank's Art Center at Phanfa as well as on TV Channel 7. Some of the traditional dance movements performed by the girls in time to their own singing were demonstrated as well as some of the dances in which boys and girls perform in alternate teams. The exclusively male reed organ (ladjei) was played as was the flute (cheu lu) and the jews harp (cha eu) by means of which messages, particularly love-messages, can be passed when courting.

NORTHEASTERN DANCE AND MUSIC.

This was presented on 24th September when the students of Kanasawat College, Mahasarakam, gave a most vivacious performance for Society members. The programme opened with a Baisri Dance after which the traditional sacred threads were tied around the wrists of some guests present, this was followed by Khun Larn, the harvesting dance. The shallow water fishing dance, Serng Sawing was next and this in turn was followed by the less wellknown mat weaving dance from Ban Pheng, Amphoe Kosumphisai. Other dances, which were interspersed with northeastern songs and solo items on the kaen and pong lang, included a brisk Fon Tien, the candle dance, the Fon Phu Thai and a boisterous Kiong Yao Dance to round off an enjoyable night.

TAECHIEW OPERA

A somewhat marathonic course consisting of a lecture on "Taechiew Opera in Thailand" by Mrs. Yi-Ming Chang, a Chinese dinner in Jawarad Road and a performance of the Lo Tung story (a romance set in the Tang period) at the Sin Fa Theatre was undertaken by 130 Society members on 1st November. Some of the considerable differences between Peking and Taechiew opera, particularly those pertaining to local custom regarding make-up and dress, were pointed out by Mrs. Yi-Ming before she went on to show slides of the upcoming evening's performance. Notes, on a scene-by-scene basis, had also been prepared beforehand and members were therefore able, more or less, to follow the story as it unfolded on stage. However not too many were left to witness the drop of the curtain at about 10.45 p.m.

JAPANESE NOH THEATRE.

A lecture-demonstration was given to an audience in excess of 100 at the Society on 20th January 1982 by Mr. Makamichi Tohyama, a leading exponent of the Hosho school. The evening began with a short lecture given in English by Acharn Saowaluck Suriyawongpaisal of Chulalongkorn University who explained some of the major points to look for in a Noh play and illustrated the more important points with the use of Mr. Tohyama's slides. Mr. Tohyama was then himself introduced and Acharn Saowaluck continued to translate his remarks as he gave an initial demonstration of some of the basic movements used in the Noh. The actor then demonstrated a very celebrated solo part, the Angel's Dance from Hagoromo, and later followed this up with a short part for a samurai by way of contrast. The Society is grateful to Professor Yoshinobu Kakiuchi, Professor Emeritus of the University of Tokyo, and to Mrs. Kakiuchi who gave much assistance with the preparation of this programme which proved to be of great interest to followers of drama in the Asian region.

NORTHEASTERN DANCE AND MUSIC.

The second performance of northeastern dance and music was brought to the Society on 27th January 1982 by the Teachers Training College of Loei. This was combined with a Thai supper to make an enjoyable evening for the 100 members who came to see the show which included the to-be-expected sounds of kaens, pins and pong lang. Much of the music gave signs of heavy infiltration by modern "look toong" beats but some of the dances were new to Bangkok audiences, one was even new to Loei as it was only choreographed last year on the TTC campus.

Of greatest interest, perhaps, was the Ram Chong Pang of the Thai Dam of which ethnic grouping there are only 100 households, in their own village, in Changvad Loei. This dance concerns the exorcism of evil spirits which take possession of various people. The performance begins with the blessing of a tree to which flowers are attached. The "moh phi" (spirit doctor) brandishes a sword in front of this tree aided by a group of girls who perform a ceremonial dance around it. If the magic is effective the illnesses, mental or physical, are cured when the afflicted are made to eat the flowers after the blessing is completed.

Another rather unusual dance was the Serng Nang Kwak which represents a seance in which two widows hold each end of a pole on which a basket has been fixed; this is dressed up to look somewhat human with a shirt, a hat, and maybe even false hair. Answers put to the spirit through the medium are divined from the directions in which the holders of the "kwak" move. Other spirit dances included the Fon Khoon Larn, a harvesting dance to Mae Phosop the rice-goddess, and the Ram Nang Dong in which the motions of rice husking are copied.

SLIDE LECTURES ON INDIAN ARCHEOLOGY.

The Society joined with the Ford Foundation (who kindly provided the air-fares) in sponsoring the visits of two Indian professors who came to lecture on some archeological and historical aspects of the sub-continent.

In September Dr. K.V. Raman, Professor and Head of Department of Ancient History and Archeology of Marathavada University, Madras, lectured on the archeology, temple architecture and sculptural art and iconography of South India to the Society, to the National Museum Volunteers and the Graduate School of Archeology at Silap-korn University respectively. He was followed in November by Professor T. Pathy of the Department of Ancient Indian Culture of Aurungabad University who lectured on the Ellora and Ajanta Caves at the same three locations.

CULTURAL EXCHANGES WITH MALAYSIA.

These unfortunately suffered a double blow in November/December when firstly Kesuma, the cultural troupe of Universiti Malaya, cancelled their visit at short notice and, secondly, when the festival committee of Pesta Pinang decided that they would concentrate on Singapore in 1981 and let a proposed Nang Yai performance from Thailand await another year. Many preparations had already been made for both visits and it is to be hoped that something can be rescheduled in 1982 or 1983.

THAI CLASSICAL DANCE, FOLK DANCE AND MUSIC IN FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

This was presented throughout most of August by 18 dancers and musicians from the Prasarnmit, Patumwan and Palasuksa campuses of Srinakharinwirot University by kind permission of the President, Dr. Nibhon Sasithorn, and heads of departments. The French part of the visit was largely under the sponsorship of the Comité des Fêtes de Montoire who provided a bus to take the group from Paris to give a series of performances at folklore festivals at many small towns and villages but chiefly at Charolles, Macon, Felletin and at Montoire itself. These performances were usually preceded by parades of the various participating groups, both from France and abroad, down the village streets in order to raise interest for the night shows. Audiences varied from one or two hundred in small villages up to over three thousand under the "big-top" at Montoire itself. Shows were given in converted open-air farmyards and public parks as well as in warehouses, gymnasiums, castle ruins and under canvas. Two performances were also given in churches and one in a hospital for paraplegics which included dining with, and helping to feed, the inmates.

Sleeping arrangements were usually provided at school dormitories which led to some interesting situations when "lights-out" occurred in the middle of the Thai midnight suppers, one or two near international incidents were avoided by the exercise of good sense.

Other nations represented at some of the bigger festivals included Belgium, Spain, Finland, Israel, Greece, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Romania. From further afield came Nigeria and Hawaii whilst many French regional groups were also included in many places. Programmes were very varied ranging from the almost undiluted gymnastics of Nigeria through the regional square dances of France and the furiously energetic folk dances of the Balkans. The Thai troupe were considered to be the most classic and it was gratifying to find that the great effort that had been put into preparing adequate programmes in both French and English so that spectators would have a good idea of what was going on, was appreciated at many venues.

Possibly one of the greatest problems encountered was in the provision of familiar food. Kind hosts would not believe that almost anything was acceptable provided there was an adequate provision of plain boiled rice to accompany it. Excellent food was often wasted as it was unknown and no rice was served. The problem was partly solved by the institution of "midnight picnics" consisting of instant dried noodles in the dormitory after the return from giving the late night show, but it sometimes meant a long and empty wait throughout the day for unadventurous eaters. Copious supplies of noodles were indeed packed into every free crevice in the instrument boxes (a precaution learned from previous expeditions) and the group was delighted when the Royal Thai Embassy in Paris managed to get the huge heaps of baggage past the airport customs without any inspection whatever. It might have been difficult to explain that the whole consignment was for personal consumption and not about to be used to stock up a Thai restaurant in Paris for the next six months. The Ambassador, Khun Owart Suthiwartnarueput, even went one better upon the group's departure and provided a Thai meal at the station in Paris: this was much appreciated.

After three weeks touring in central France all left for London to be greeted by Dr. Donald Mitchell, Director of Music Studies at the Britten-Pears School for Advanced Music Studies at Aldeburgh. No time was lost in getting down to rehearsal for the Promenade Concert performance to be given under the auspices of the BBC in the Royal Albert Hall on 22nd August. This was to be used by both sound radio and, later, by television and was to be only the second time that a group from Southeast Asia had been invited to perform in the 87 year history of the "Proms".

Many hours of rehearsals in different BBC studios culminated in a commendable performance which included khon excerpts, folk dances and classical musical show-pieces. The promenaders amongst the audience, which had been somewhat at ease on the hall floor during the preceding item, a Messiaen organ recital, rose to their feet and remained pressed to the bar of the orchestra pit during the whole of the 50 minute Thai programme. Most major music critics, particularly those from "The Times" and "The Daily Telegraph", gave favourable reports two days later.

The Ambassador to Britain, Khun Phan Wannamethee, gave an excellent reception at the Embassy after the performance and it was only with great difficulty that all could be extracted, and despatched to their billets, around 1 a.m.: two shows were scheduled up on the east coast at Aldeburgh next day and an early start was called for. Before returning to Thailand one additional sound recording was made for the BBC, this is the third programme that has been recorded by Srinakharinwirot University groups in the course of the past four years.

In addition to the invaluable FF 20,000 subvention provided by M. Jean-Francois Proux and his festival committee at Montoire towards airfares, the considerable sum of Baht 270,000 was also donated by banks and business houses (listed elsewhere) with Thai/French, and Thai/British connections. To this support must be added that from the Anglo-Thai Society in London, chaired by Sir Arthur de la Mare, an ex-Ambassador to Thailand, and his Honorary Secretary Mr. John Milner, and of course the fees from the BBC itself. These funds ensured that the tour remained viable and it would have been quite impossible to ensure so far, for so long, without adequate financial back-up. The Siam Society, which received prominent billing in the 7,500 French and English language programmes personally printed free-of-charge by Khun Suk Soongsawang of D.K. Bookhouse, is most grateful to all who gave support in both cash, or kind, and hopes that all generous sponsors will not feel that their assistance has been wasted.

LUANG PRADIT PAIROH FOUNDATION.

Funds were voted to support the objectives of this musical foundation launched by Khunying Chin Silapabanleng, the celebrated musician's daughter, and a group of supporters in early 1981. Recordings were made of some of the more rare as well as some of the better known compositions by a group of distinguished musicians. They were made both privately and at a special programme commemorating the late Luang Pradit at the National Theatre in August. The Society hopes to receive copies of all the recordings, and of the publications, in due course.

TEMPLE MURALS PRESERVATION.

In cooperation with the Siamese Architects Association, the Society assisted in negotiations to obtain a grant of Baht 200,000 from the Siam Cement Company, to preserve murals dating from the Third Reign in Wat Bangkhanun, Klong Bangkok Noi, Nonthaburi. The Society successfully concluded arrangements with the Fine Arts Department, the provincial government and the Abbot to allow this work to proceed.

Surviving murals at Wat Bangyikan, also dating from the Third Reign, will also benefit from a grant to be made by the management of the European Asian Bank as their principal contribution towards the Rattanakosin Bicentennial Celebrations. The Society has obtained permission from the Fine Arts Department for this work to proceed. It will be placed under the control of Khun Wannipha na Songkla of the F.A.D. who has already completed some most successful preservation projects at Wat Boworn, Wat Suthat and Wat Phrakeo. She was responsible for the work at Wat Kok in Rajburi about 7 years ago.
