

Verses of Victorious Blessings to His Majesty King Bhumibol

1. Lord Buddha by himself enlightened,
Discovering the sum of Goodness,
Taught the Sangha, them enlightened -
This we call the Triple Gem.
2. Bless'd by this same three-fold jewel
And the sum of all his merits
His Majesty King Bhumipol to Thailand dedicates himself.
3. King whose faith profound and firm
Supports the teachings of the Great One;
King whose grace confers protection
On the teachings of the Sangha,
4. Whose patient labours for the good
Of all his subjects in his Kingdom
Demonstrates his great compassion-
Hub of Nation's harmony!
5. May His Majesty have long life,
With the Queen, their son and daughters!
Stay long upon the throne, Great Being,
Who in Dhamma lives and reigns.
6. May His Majesty know fullfilment
Facing nothing ill-intended,
Safe within divine protection
Meeting Goodness with his Good.
7. Flourish, Thailand's land and people,
Under Bhumipol the Great, and Prosper, teachings of the Buddha
Through the grace of this Great King.

8. Long may members of his family
Live within his radiant presence.
Serve the country well, its rulers,
His example following.
9. Be happy, then, all Thailand's people
With your sovereign as your refuge,
Grace of Triple Gem affords us
Happiness of earthly creatures,
But, with loving-kindness nurtured,
Buddhists wish the world entire
Peace and Goodness for time endless,
Joy throughout eternity.

Translation by Suchao Ploychum
Kasetsat University, Bangkok

His Majesty's photograph in the Assembly Hall of the Society

Their Majesties the King and Queen visited The Society on its 50th anniversary in 1954